Activity Recommendations

Table Mountain

Explore the most scenic landmark of Cape Town and gain a breathtaking view over the city. Either choose a hiking trail that fits within your available time, or take the Table Mountain Aerial Cableway. You can find more information on the different hiking trails here. The specifications listed below apply to the cableway option:

Location: 5821 Tafelberg Rd, Table Mountain (Nature Reserve), Cape Town, 8001

Duration: The cable car ride to the top takes about 5 minutes. You should plan in sufficient time at the top to explore the summit and enjoy the views. Possible queue times at the cableway can extend the required time. In total the trip takes around 1-2 hours.

Cost: ZAR430 (€22) Tipp: pre-booking online & for after 13:00 offers lower rates

Booking: via the Table Mountain Aerial Cableway website

Robben Island

The UNESCO world heritage site provides unique insights into South Africa's rich history. For centuries, Robben Island was used as a place of exile and imprisonment, most notably during the apartheid era, when it housed political prisoners like Nelson Mandela. Guided tours of the museum including a short ferry ride from the V&A Waterfront provide an educational experience, enriching any visit to Cape Town.

Location: the ferry departs from 'The Nelson Mandela Gateway' V&A Waterfront, Cape Town, 8001

Duration: around 4 hours (incl. two ferry trips of 30-60 min)

Cost: South Africans ZAR400 (€20,50); non South Africans ZAR600 (€30,50)

Booking: via the Robben Island Museum website
