

AESIS

NETWORK FOR
ADVANCING & EVALUATING THE SOCIETAL IMPACT OF SCIENCE

ARE YOU...

...looking for a responsible position in organising international activities to connect Science with Society?

...available for at least 5 months starting in January?

...in your Master phase or a starter looking for working experience?

...MEET AESIS!

The Network for Advancing and Evaluating Societal Impact of Science.

Our small, fun and energetic team brings together stakeholders from all over the world in academia, government, industry and society to exchange good-practices for capturing and stimulating societal impact of science (including SSHA).

The AESIS team is looking for a new colleague to fill the position:

Project Manager Intern: 'Advancing Scientific Impact on Society'

We are looking for someone who:

- Likes to be challenged, is self-motivated and proactive;
- Has demonstrable organisational experience, and enjoys planning events while keeping a clear overview of tasks;
- Has excellent spoken and written command of English;
- Likes to work in an international and commercial environment.

You will be partially responsible for:

- Finding and inviting speakers, contacting partners, assisting with marketing, coordinating content and overseeing various stages of several projects, like:
 - Our spring course on science policy for impact;
 - Online seminar on Open Science;
 - the Societal Impact of Science Conference in Dublin, Ireland;
 - and assisting in other (online) webinars & assignments;
- Maintaining day-to-day activities for the network: collecting articles for our newsletters, maintaining correspondence with our network partners and members, and updating the website and social media.

We offer:

- The possibility to organise international activities that will help scientific knowledge improve the world;
- Contact with key experts and stakeholders on science policy, funding and research management, taking a visible network position for yourself;
- A position with much responsibility and learning opportunities in a small, informal and dynamic organisation;
- An internship of 40 hours per week for at least 5 months starting in January (at the latest) with a remuneration of €400/month.
